HACK IN THE HARNESS.—The Record had about concluded that Bro. W. P. Walton had given it the shake, as out a single copy of his new paper, the Harrodsburg Democrat, reached our desk until Saturday. The paper presented such an improved appearance that we scarcely recognized it. A new head had been installed, the matter thoroughly classified, the ads nicely distributed and well set, while the editorial column is chuck full of such bright, up-to-the-minute matter as only Col. Walton's bright pen can produce. The Democrat will shortly blossom into a semi-weekly and several other improvements be made on it. By the way, we have noticed no opposition being given Col. Walton's candidacy for railroad commissioner, which fact goes to show that his party appreciates the years of hard labor he has put in for its advancement and welfare.—Central Record.

They will be prepared to furnish you with all kinds of good things and your patronage will be appreciated. The proceeds will go toward improving the lot occupied by the parsonage.

Quite a number of our people attended the camp meeting at Precherville Sunday and Sunday night. A large crowd and an interesting meeting are reported. CURE FOR CHOLERA INFANTUM—NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL.

During last may an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days' time the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail. Mrs. Curtis Baker, Bookwater, Ohio. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON.

THE outlook for Hon. James B. McCreary for U. S. Senator grows brighter as democratic nominations for representative and State Senator are made. He gets about one a week now, but a few days ago, four gentlemen, strong for him, were given the banner to carry in democratic districts. The republicans and the distinguished gentlemen who are opposing Mr. McCreary have all seen the handwriting on the wall and readily realize that it is a waste of time and money to try to defeat that gallant statesman and tried and true democrat. Deboe's day as Senator, for which office the good Lord never created him, is rapidly drawing to a close, and soon he will be sent back to his outraged constituency and his seat in the Senate filled by a gentleman whose name will not make Kentuckians blush with shame when they hear it. A better day is in sight, for which let us all give thanks.

When Congress a number of years ago reduced the postage on newspapers to one cent a pound to publishers, it had no intention of throwing down the bars to all classes of advertising sheets to pass through the mails at a mere nominal. Abuses, however, have grown so flagrant that three fourths of all the weight of mail matter handled by the government is what is termed second class matter, which pays less than $1,000,000 of the $110,000,000 revenue of the postoffice department. The postmaster general has just made a ruling that will throw much of the matter into the third class, which is charged at the rate of half a cent an ounce. The intention of Congress in fixing so low a rate for newspapers was to encourage their circulation, but there never was a law that scoundrels could not take advantage of and the one mentioned is no exception to the rule.

In speaking of Gov. Beckham's election of a successor to Judge J. H. Tinsley, of the 27th judicial district, the Lexington Herald shows that it hasn't lost all of its milk of human kindness by saying that Mr. Dishman is an excellent lawyer, an upright gentleman and will discharge the duties of the position with fidelity, industry and honesty. His father, the late John Dishman, was a leader at the bar and his son is a "chip off the old block." It was reported that Gov. Beckham had concluded to tender this office to James D. Black, Esq., who was one of his competitors for the democratic nomination for governor. It would have been a graceful compliment and Mr. Black would have adorned the bench. But no one can justly criticize the appointment of Judge Dishman.

THE following sensible editorial appeared in Friday's Mt. Vernon Signal. It shows very plainly that Editor Albright is not in sympathy with the gang, who at the suggestion of Jack Leg lawyers, are ready and willing to sue anybody for anything if they think they have a show, by prejudice or otherwise to get a dollar or so. A few more verdicts like that one rendered in Louisville last week, in the case of Johnny Stamper vs the Courier Journal, will put a stop to such cattle as the "preacher" from jumping up and wanting to bring suit for damages every time a newspaper says something about their meanness. In this county there is pending now a suit similar to that which was brought against the Courier Journal, and when tried, will and ought to be decided like it.

THE citizens of Madison county expect that a compromise will be reached regarding the disposition of the grounds and buildings in Richmond which formerly belonged to Central University, says a dispatch from Richmond. We hope some agreement will be reached and that soon contention about the whole business will cease. Richmond and her liberal citizens very naturally dislike to give up Central University but it has been decreed and they will show their good judgment by not kicking against the pricks.

COLUMBIA University of New York is to have a chair of Chinese language and literature, but we heartily agree with an exchange that the university will remain incomplete until it introduces a chair of Deboe conversation and history. Will the Columbia University take this gentle hint or will it continue in its unfinished state?

AN exchange asks, "where is Teddy?" We can not answer, but we do know that he has kept himself from public view longer than he usually does and we fear he was one of the victims of the recent heated spell.

LEXINGTON women sent a box of clothing, food and other necessities to the family of James Howard at Manchester. This is better than giving shyster lawyers money to try and save Howard's neck.

MANY of the editorials in the Owensboro Messenger and Paducah Standard are verbatim, but they are so good that no kick should be made.

Gov. McCreary said to the Lexington Democrat that the senatorial situation was all he could ask.

KENTUCKY will spend over $2,000,000 this year to educate her children in the public schools. This is an enormous amount, but if it is judiciously spent, which it likely will be, the taxpayers of the Commonwealth will have no cause to kick. Money spent for education pays the biggest interest of all investments and it is a pity more of our wealth does not go that way.

POLITICAL.

Gov. Beckham will attend the Good Roads Convention at Hopkinsville tomorrow.

Hon. A. B. Kirtledge will be appointed United States Senator of South Dakota to succeed James H. Kyle.

Senator McLaurin, of South Carolina, delivered a hot expansion speech at Spartansburg, his State, July 4.

Scott county republicans put four flopper democrats on their ticket, which will and should be defeated.

Dr. J. O. Robinson, democratic nominee for representative of Franklin county, says he is for E. H. Taylor, Jr., for U. S. Senator.

Wade Godsey has been appointed postmaster at Troublesome, Perry county, and Martin Carnes, Jr., at Walker, Knox county.

Hon. John D. White, the "Crested Jayhawker," has taken the stump again. He made a prohibition speech at Shelbyville yesterday.

George Washington is dead while Congressman Grosvenor is alive, but this is by no means the only difference between them.—Commoner.

Mr. Hanna insists that the tariff be left severely alone. It must be that he expects to find it necessary to fry an unusual amount of fat in 1904.—Commoner.

The republicans of the 17th judicial district have called a primary for September 17th to select a candidate for circuit judge. Judge Tinsley was judge of this district.

The Porto Rican general assembly celebrated Independence day by the unanimous adoption of the free trade resolution and it was signed by Gov. Allen. July 25 is designated as the time for the removal of the tariff, and President McKinley is asked to issue his proclamation on that date.

The Ohio democratic State convention will meet in Columbus tomorrow. No effort will be made to endorse McLean, Johnson or anyone else for Senator. Nearly all the leaders of the gold democrats are delegates to the convention. They will oppose any reference in the platform to the silver question. The nomination of Col. James Kilbourne for governor is said to be assured.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

25c MADRAS at 19c. Severance & Sons.

THE weather is delightfully pleasant now, but the fear that it won't last long keeps us from enjoying it as much as we might otherwise.

NARROW ESCAPE—Thomas, Will and James Boone, of the Maywood section, had a narrow escape the other day. They had their threshing on W. T. Tucker's farm and during a storm pulled it into his barn. Lightning struck the building, setting it on fire and badly stunning the three gentlemen, who did not get over the shock for an hour or more. The fire was extinguished before much damage was done and Mr. Tucker and the Messrs. Boone are thankful that they got off as well as they did.

McKECHNIE—Mrs. James McKechnie, wife of our clever countyman, died in New York, Friday, as the result of an operation, and was buried at Lancaster yesterday afternoon. Mrs. McKechnie, with her husband and family moved to Lincoln from Boyle a year ago, but she was originally from Wayne county, where she was held in high esteem and where the announcement of her death will cause universal sorrow. Deceased was about 50 years old and left besides her devoted husband six children who will keenly feel the loss of a tender mother's guidance. Peace to her ashes and sympathy for those who weep over her departure.

Card From Casey's Next Judge.

I desire to announce through the INTERIOR JOURNAL to its readers who live in Casey county that the democratic county committee met in Liberty on the 24th day of June and after mature deliberation, based on an expression of the people of the various precincts throughout the county, gave me the nomination for the office of county judge. I have decided, after solicitation from my friends of both parties, to accept the nomination and make the best light I can. First I want to thank the voters who asked the committee to give me the nomination and further express my gratitude to the committee, who are a noble set of men, for the honor they have conferred by giving me the nomination for the highest office in the county. The honor is the more appreciated because of the 101 good men in Casey, who could beat Capt. Raines. The honor and duty has fallen on me and by the co-operation and support of the good citizens I hope to do so; and now I have but one great ambition and that is to be elected and as I believe a public office is a public trust, I desire to be an impartial, faithful, competent officer.

On Friday night about 30 of the Danville, Junction City and Shelby City friends of Miss Mattie Brand stormed her, led by Mr. Edwin Booth, of Junction City. This was a send off to Miss Mattie. She entertained the crowd very enjoyably all about 1 o'clock, when they all departed, wishing her a pleasant trip.

The colored picnic on the 4th proved a soaker for many a swell turnout of gaudily dressed dudes and dudines. The Logan Town Band, in Beazley Bros' wagonette, came here, but the rain soon ran them out of the woods into the shelter of the U. B. F. Hall, where there were refreshments and music, but the dancing had to be left out on account of want of room.

Miss Mattie Cowan, of Turnersville, spent a portion of last week with her friend, Miss Loula Leigh. Elbert Minor, of Rollings, was the guest of his brother, Lucien Minor, and while here purchased dry goods of our general merchant, Mr. George Hocker. Mrs. Clara Koller and Mrs. Mary Willard and daughters, Misses Eva and Stella Willard, of Gravel Switch, are the guests of Mrs. H. S. Glascock. On Tuesday night last Miss Edna Shivel entertained about 30 of her Danville, Junction City and Shelby City friends at the home of her mother, Mrs. Joe Wright.

Mr. David Dunn and wife, of Anderson, Ind., returned home Thursday to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Dunn, and Mrs. Hayes. Christopher Engleman, who has spent three months in Hamilton, O., returned home last week. Miss Mattie Brand, a most amiable young lady, left Sunday for a trip to Mansfield, Greenacres, Salem and Indianapolis, to be absent about six weeks with relatives.

Ulysses Tatum was shot and killed at a dance near Valley View. Reuben Hall is charged with the crime.

While cleaning a revolver, William Lynum, of Carlisle, accidentally shot and fatally wounded his wife.

To the Members of the Kentucky Growers Insurance Company And Whomsoever It May Concern.

Various falsehoods, intended to insure the Kentucky Growers Insurance Company, are being circulated by local agents of other companies in certain localities. Each and every one of these stories this company denounces as false and malicious and sends warning thereof to those giving circulation to them. The Kentucky Growers Insurance Company was never in a more flourishing condition than it is now. It owes but one loss (a house entitled to minor children now being rebuilt by the company) and has practically no outside debts. Were it to quit business to-day it is able to refund any unearned dues it may have collected. Its outgoing call for the year has been so far, and will be to the end, ample to meet any possible losses. The rate is the same as last year and can not now be altered or increased, under the law, so those who are yet subject to call (on last half of year) need have no uneasiness on that score. This company is under the direct control of fifteen directors, men of character and of property, who show their faith in it by risking their insurance to the value of $90,000. Through their Executive Board, composed of C. S. Williams, President, and Alex. Dunlap, of Woodford; A. J. Gorham, of Fayette; and Leslie Cleveland, of Jessamine, all calls are fixed, and by this board the affairs of the Company are investigated bi-monthly, also periodically by the full board of directors. The Company is wholly independent of all others and none of its officers have, or ever had, any connection with any other. Its directory is composed of successful business men, farmers, running a farmers company, in the interest of farmers. It asks its members and friends to believe in it and attach no credence to false tales concerning it. They have no basis of fact whatever to rest on and may be traced to the cunning mind of some unscrupulous agent in search of a fee for himself. Beware of the man who solicits you business by exploiting his pretended knowledge of his rival's affairs. The presumption of fairness is against him. The Kentucky Growers is all right and solicits the farmers' insurance. These are the Kentucky Growers' directors: A. J. Gorham, Fayette county; C. S. Williams, Woodford county; Sidney Bedford, Jas. P. Hilderson county; A. H. Vanant, S. P. Eastland, Mercer county; D. W. Dunn, T. A. Bradley, Boyle county; J. K. Haughton, Lincoln county; G. T. Higginbotham, Garrard county; Jacob Troutman, A. L. Christian, Jessamine county. Very truly,

CASEY county people here yesterday complained of a severe drought in various sections of the "State of Casey."

A TON of postage stamps was received at the New York postoffice the other day. Postmaster Florence doesn't order in quite as large lots.

TOM GILL, who has been in jail nearly a dozen times in the last five years, was put in again yesterday, charged with beating his brother-in-law.

LOST an Odd Fellows' pin—three links with bar above, on which is inscribed the word "Mother." Will give $2 for its return. Waverly Hamilton.

SOME 25 or 30 of the boys who have been serving Uncle Sam in the Philippines passed on yesterday's Southbound train. They were almost as brown as a ginger cake.

TEN members of the Junction City Tent of Maccabees, headed by Dr. J. R. Steele, went to Barboursville Saturday to assist in initiating a number of candidates there that night.

A FRANKFORT telegram says that incorporation articles were filed in the office of the secretary of State by the Green River Oil and Gas Company of Casey county. The capital stock of the company is $1,000 and G. A. Prewitt, George E. Stone and J. W. Hoskins, all of Casey, are the incorporators.

NEAR the advertisement of the Kentucky Growers Insurance Company, of Lexington, in another column. The company is all right and has never failed to pay a loss nor asked a "knock-off" where there was a loss. That Mr. J. K. Baughman is a director in the company is good proof of its security.

In the county court yesterday the will of Len Irvine was probated. It named his son-in-law, W. P. Givens, executor without bond. The instrument bears date of June 13, 1901, and Messrs. B. F. Powell and R. G. Penny are the witnesses. Q. C. Jones, of Casey, qualified as administrator of Dr. Ed M. Estes, who left no will. His estate is estimated at $10,000.

THERE were 175 arrivals at Crab Orchard Springs last week and still they come. The most delightful and accessible summer resort in Kentucky is rapidly filling up and there is every reason why it should. The fare is excellent this year and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Willis are making everybody feel that it is good to be there. Go and spend a week and be benefited.

LIVERY OUTFIT CHANGES HANDS.—James H. Boone, of the Maywood section, has bought of J. H. Ward his livery outfit on Depot street for $1,250 and sold to Mr. Ward his farm of 60 acres for a like amount. Mr. Boone took charge of the stable yesterday and will move his family to town in a few days. Mr. Ward will go to his farm at once. Mr. Boone is well-known in Stanford, is a popular and deserving young man and should do well in his new field. Mr. Ward has made friends during his sojourn here, but has not found the livery business profitable.

WHITE, grey and black silk gloves. Severance & Sons.

BUTTERICK Patterns for August can now be gotten at John P. Jones'.

LOOK at Severance & Sons' ad. They mean to close out their summer goods if prices will do it.

REMEMBER that our terms are cash. Low cash prices on feed of all kinds. J. H. Baughman & Co.

W. M. BRIGHT bought the 21 acres of land adjoining his farm and owned by the James Givens heirs yesterday at $80 10.

LOST between Stanford and Rowland a stethoscope, an instrument of metal and rubber about one foot long. Please return to Dr. Cook.

HON. M. ABELE, who has made several speeches in this county, won the democratic nomination for assessor of Kenton county by over 500.

MISS ADAMS, of Hustonville, will sell their millinery stock on reasonable terms. Good stand. Contemplate moving causes them to sell. Write or call.

YESTERDAY was the dullest court Stanford has had this century. Hardly half the usual crowd came to town and very little business was transacted in any way.

WAVERLY HAMILTON and wife had a narrow escape from being bitten by a mad dog a few days ago. The canine chased them, but Waverly and wife are both good sprinters and got out of the dog's way. Carroll Shanks killed the mad brute later.

ESTRAY HOGS—Three hogs, one weighing about 175 pounds, another about 150 and the third about 100, two barrows and one sow, have been in the estray pen a week. Owner please call and pay expenses on them. R. G. Jones, marshal.

A SEVERE wind, hail and rain storm passed over the Parlor Grove section of Lincoln county a few evenings since. A number of trees were blown down, a cow belonging to Mont Howard was killed, while fences and crops suffered severely. Mr. Val Fagaley tells us.

CONSIDERABLE excitement was caused Saturday afternoon by Marshal Jones arresting Jos Hayden, colored, who didn't want to go with the officer before Judge Carson. Mr. Jones had to bring his stick into use as well as get assistance before the darkey would go. He was arrested for swearing on the street and his trial is set for this morning. He got out of jail on a $50 bond.

LARGE crowds are attending the Preachersville camp meeting. Mr. Hugh Sargent, who was here yesterday, told us. The best of order is being kept and he thinks much good will result from the meeting. A number have asked to be prayed for. The tent used is a mammoth one, seating between 1,500 and 2,000 people and it is frequently full. Rev. H. C. Morrison is doing most of the preaching.

AT the Red Men's celebration at Livingston last week, a prize for the ugliest woman was divided between Mesdames Salsie Mullins and C. A. Moore, which is a joke indeed, as they are both unusually good looking women. Miss Cleo Mullins won the honor of being the prettiest girl present, but had a hard fight to beat Miss Anna Thompson. Mr. Frazier, of Pittsburgh, beat handsome "Loge" Thompson in the contest for the handsomest man.

JONES FOR JUDGE.—We are neither a prophet nor a son of one, but we'll wager that Mr. M. W. Jones, of Middleburg, will be Casey county's next judge. The democrats have nominated him, and while he will have no running mates in his party, he will have one in Judge Kaines, the republican nominee, who we predict he will distance in November. Mr. Jones is a fine gentleman and will make Casey county a judge of whom she will have reason to be proud.

THE past week has been a lively one for the banks here, that is they have handled more checks than in a similar period for a long time. July settlements and the repeal of the revenue stamp tax have made business good as far as checking out money is concerned. One banker remarked that from the number of checks some of his patrons have given since July 1, he judges that they are making a strenuous effort to get straight with the world, but must have been pretty far behind when they resolved to "owe no man."

SHOOTING.—At Crab Orchard about 1 o'clock Sunday morning, James Kennedy and John Payne engaged in a shooting ben in which three shots were fired by the former and one by the latter, but neither of the boys was wounded. A bullet from Kennedy's pistol struck Minnie Brooks, however, and she has a painful wound in one of her arms. The boys fell out over the Brooks woman. A writ was issued for young Kennedy and placed in Deputy Sheriff Joe A. Shannon's hands. He went immediately to Mr. Kennedy's home and remained there till day break, but found no trace of the young man. Kennedy, it is said, had only three cartridges in his pistol and Payne, but one, or the shooting might have continued longer and resulted more seriously.

Go to John P. Jones for school shoes, good and cheap.

THE Lancaster and Stanford colored base ball teams will cross bats here this afternoon.

NO SALE.—Mr. Joseph Giesburg has decided not to sell his household and kitchen furniture as advertised. He may sell on a date later.

DUDDERAR.—Little Iva Banks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Dudderar, died at 5 o'clock yesterday morning and was buried at Goshen church late in the afternoon. The little thing had been a sufferer for some time.

THE traction engine, clover huller and separator, sold by Master Commissioner R. C. Warren yesterday, to satisfy a debt against W. C. Myers & Co., brought $525, about half of the amount due. The plaintiff bought the engine and separator and John Cash the huller.

AMONG our promptest paying subscribers is Mr. Henry Blankenship, of the Preachersville section, who got a receipt for the INTERIOR JOURNAL a year in advance yesterday. "I've got my taxes and my paper paid now, so I'm all right," he remarked as he handed us a silver dollar. Mr. Blankenship is right at 70 years old and during that long time has never served as juror. He has no conscientious scruples about serving, however, but has never been asked, although he would make a good one.
